PRESERVATION WORKS FOR WEST VIRGINIA!

Preservation Alliance of West Virginia invites you to historic Wheeling—birthplace of the state—for the 2007 conference, “Preservation Works for West Virginia.”

Designed to be both informative and fun, the conference promises a balanced blend of tours and receptions, workshops, educational sessions and speakers. Some sessions will be held in the very courtroom at Independence Hall where West Virginia’s statehood was proclaimed!

Register now to reserve your space for May 17, 18 & 19. For more information visit www.pawv.org, e-mail info@pawv.org or call 304-345-6005.

(Background: Independence Hall, Wheeling)

This conference partially funded by the W. Va. Division of Culture and History and the National Park Service, Department of the Interior. However, the contents and opinions do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Department of the Interior. Regulations of the U.S. Department of the Interior strictly prohibit unlawful discrimination in departmental Federally Assisted programs on the basis of race, color, national origin, age or handicap. Any person who believes he or she has been discriminated against in any program, activity, or facility operated by a recipient of Federal assistance should write to: Director, Equal Opportunity Program, U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service, P.O. Box 37127, Washington, D.C. 20013-7127.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Augie Carlino, CEO of Rivers of Steel National Heritage Area

Augie Carlino was acting project director for the Steel Industry Heritage Task Force, which grew under his direction to the Rivers of Steel National Heritage Area, a regional non-profit community/heritage development company. In 1991, he helped organize the Pennsylvania Heritage Parks Association and served as president from 1994 to 2000. He also helped organize the Alliance of National Heritage Areas in 1997, and has served as chairman of this national organization from 2000 to 2006. Currently, he is a member of the Partnership Committee of the National Park Service Advisory Board and serves on the Board of Advisors for the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

OPENING PLENARY: Dr. David Javersak, Dean of Liberal Arts, West Liberty State College

Dr. David T. Javersak currently serves as a Professor of History and Dean of the School of Liberal Arts at West Liberty State College. His research interests include Wheeling, Weirton, and the upper Ohio Valley. He has published ten entries in the West Virginia Encyclopedia, and a variety of articles on Wheeling and West Liberty in several state and local publications. Dr. Javersak is also the author of the 1999 work History of Weirton. He is an Emeritus Member of the West Virginia Independence Hall Foundation board.
