

Preservation Trades Road Show
Kanawha Valley Sustainability Fair
September 24, 2011 10:00 to 4:00
Columbia Gas Transmissions Bldg. 1700 MacCorkle Ave SE

Preservation Alliance of West Virginia (PAWV) will be hosting a Preservation Trades Road Show. Experts in historic preservation with extensive knowledge in masonry, plaster, windows, historic architecture, historic interiors, structural engineering, and other preservation techniques will be available to demonstrate historic preservation methods as well as address audience member's questions. Please bring photographs or other easily transportable items, if applicable, that will help illustrate your particular concern.

The event, based on the popular Antiques Road Show format, allows owners of historic properties to consult with preservation experts free of charge. It will be held as part of the Sustainability Fair at 1700 MacCorkle Ave SE on Sat Sept 24 from 10 to 4. The award winning Walkabout Company from Wheeling will be filming the event. Registration is not necessary. For more information contact 304 345 6005 or info@pawv.org
