Preservation Alliance of West Virginia by the Numbers

Preserving West Virginia in 2013

Lynn Stasick, Field Services Representative, traveled 6,424 miles for 5 workshops and 15 site visits, offering technical assistance, guidance, and support in preserving historic structures.

88 members donated $5,092 in membership dues.

Over 115 people attended the Historic Preservation Mini-Conference in Morgantown.

11 Preserve WV AmeriCorps Members started service with 10 different nonprofits.

Preserve WV AmeriCorps members logged 4,061 service hours from Oct. to Dec.

Awarded $22,124 in grant funding from Volunteer WV and the Corporation for National and Community Service for the Preserve WV AmeriCorps program.

PAWV was the recipient of a WV Humanities Council $1,500 mini-grant for the traveling exhibit, Preserving West Virginia. Saving Communities.

CONSOL Energy provided a $1,920 grant for the first Historic Preservation Student Essay Contest.

“Table Listing Members” or photos here?
Preservation Alliance of West Virginia by the Numbers

Preserving West Virginia in 2013

TOTAL INCOME FOR 2013

- Donations: 45%
- Grants: 24%
- AmeriCorps Sponsorships: 15%
- Program Income: 9%
- Membership: 4%
- Program Sponsors: 3%

TOTAL EXPENSES FOR 2013

- Staff Salaries: 49%
- AmeriCorps Stipend: 25%
- Payroll Taxes & Fringe Benefits: 9%
- Travel Expenses: 5%
- Program Expenses: 7%
- Contract Services: 3%
- Administrative: 2%
- Travel Expenses: 5%
Preservation Alliance of West Virginia by the Numbers

Preserving West Virginia in 2013

Attendees look on while Lynn Stasick demonstrates the powers of steam in windows rehabilitation during the Morgantown mini-conference.

Lynn Stasick leads workshop participants in a site evaluation of the Westly, Sears Kit Home in Lewisburg during a special endangered properties training in May.

In November, PAWV had a special awards ceremony in Lewisburg for the adaptive re-use of the Old Greenbrier County Public Library recognized as the 2013 Most Significant Save of an Endangered Property.