West Virginia Historic Preservation Awards
Nomination Guidelines & Form

Guidelines:
• All nominations are due Friday, March 20, 2020 at 5pm.
• Submit completed nomination form via email to info@pawv.org
• Submit at least 3 photos - larger than 1 MB in size - of the project nomination with your nomination form.
• This year’s awards banquet will be held at the Bluefield Arts Center on Saturday, May 2, 2020 as part of the West Virginia Historic Preservation Conference. The keynote speaker will be Renee Kuhlman of the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

A special nominating committee consisting of PAWV board members and staff will select and notify the awardees, as well as the nominators of the nomination status. All are welcome to submit nominations and attend the banquet. Nominators can submit more than one nomination but must submit one nomination per award. For information on award recipients from previous years, visit http://www.pawv.org/awards.html.

Nomination Form:
1) Select an Award Category for your nomination. Please choose one category per nomination. (Indicate your choice by clicking the box or entering an X in front of the box.)

☐ Dr. Emory Kemp Lifetime Achievement Award – Nominate an individual to be recognized for significant contributions to historic preservation in West Virginia over a major part of the individual's life.

☐ Rodney Collins’ Preservation Achievement Award – A person or organization recognized for a recent and significant contribution to historic preservation through the architectural or engineering profession in West Virginia.

☐ Bob Weir Craftsperson Award – A person or organization specializing in a historic preservation craft or trade recognized for a recent and significant contribution to historic preservation in West Virginia.
☐ Heritage Tourism Award – A project, site, and/or organization recognized for having a significant contribution to the heritage tourism industry in West Virginia. These should be recent, innovative, and bring additional heritage tourists to West Virginia.

☐ Best Use of Historic Tax Credits Award – A project, organization, person, and/or company is recognized for the recent use of historic preservation tax credits to rehabilitate and re-use a historic building in West Virginia.

☐ West Virginia Media Award – A West Virginia historic preservation and/or cultural heritage tourism media project is recognized, as well as the person/organization creating the media project.

☐ Historic Landscape Restoration Award – A project, organization, person, and/or company recognized for the recent restoration of a historic landscape.

☐ Most Significant Save of an Endangered Property – This category is focused primarily on the West Virginia Endangered Properties List http://pawv.org/endanger.htm, however, if the property was not listed on the West Virginia Endangered Properties List, describe in the application how the property was formerly endangered and how it was saved. Also describe who saved the property and how it is being re-used.
